

is a weeklong arts day camp for students that have recently completed the 3rd, 4th or 5th grades.

Arts Explosion allows students to work with professional artists, learning a variety of techniques and skills in four of the six artistic disciplines offered during the week.

Arts Explosion is held Monday through Friday the week of July 13-17, 2009 at the Stephens County Fairgrounds. Sessions begin at 8:30 am and will end at 12:20 pm. Students can be dropped off beginning at 8:15 am and should be picked up no later than 12:30 pm. There is NO child-care offered before or after sessions.

Fees include class instruction and supplies.

Registration before June 30 is $50 per student, on or after July 1, $60. Complete payment must accompany registration. There are a limited number of partial and full scholarships available. Applications are available from the CTAC office. Registration fees are non-refundable. Enrollment is limited to the first 100 students who register.

So that everyone may benefit from the Arts Explosion experience, discipline problems will be addressed and disruptive students may be sent home with no refund.

Robby McMurtry will make his second appearance as an instructor of drawing at Arts Explosion. McMurtry was born and raised in Stephens County and now resides in Morris, OK where he is an arts instructor and Cultural Coordinator of the Indian Education Program, Morris Public Schools. Robby is an accomplished American Indian artist, illustrator and author of "Song of Moon Pony". It's a great to have Robby return to teach at Arts Explosion!

Dan Hazel comes to Duncan for his fifth Arts Explosion experience after great student reviews from last year. Dan earned his BA Ed at USAO and his MA at Southwestern Oklahoma State University.

He is employed by Marlow Public Schools as the Art and Photography teacher and has participated in numerous art shows and taken home the top prize in many. CTAC welcomes Dan back as our pottery instructor!

Janet Romanishin, a nationally certified teacher of flute through Music Teachers National Association, earned her DMA in flute performance from USC. In addition to private teaching, she presents educational programs on the flute family as a member of the Norman Public Schools Visiting Artist Program. She currently performs with the Arioso Consort and is principal flutist with the Oklahoma Community Orchestra. This class will make a flute then learn to play it!

Dora Obuobisa is an inspiring artist with unique talents in leatherwork, batik, tie-dye, and traditional African crafts. She holds a BA in painting, a postgraduate diploma and MA in art education from the University of Science and Technology in Ghana. She has worked as an art instructor in several Oklahoma City Schools. She will lead the students in tie-dye design. We welcome Dora back for her 3rd year at AE and the creations her students will unveil.

Troy Scott was born in Edmond, OK and raised in the metro area. He comes to Arts Explosion with over twenty years of experience as a professional clown, artist and performer, he will teach the essentials of classic circus, clown make-up, skills and routines for a hilarious end-of-week performance. This class develops confidence, communication and teamwork. Students will be encouraged to actively learn through experimentation and observation while drawing upon their own experience and imagination.

Clown Class is limited to 48 kids! (If more sign up a wait list will be implemented).
